Background

Budget 2021 announced that the government will publish a green bond framework in the coming months in advance of issuing its inaugural green bond in 2021-22.

In pursuing this work, the Department of Finance and the Bank of Canada, acting in its role as fiscal agent, received advice from a number of domestic and foreign dealers on how to manage the federal government's inaugural green bond issuance.

s.21(1)(b)

s.69(1)(g) re: (a)

A key takeaway from this engagement is that sovereign green bond issuers typically appoint one or two structuring advisors to advise on all key aspects of the green bond issuance to promote a successful inaugural transaction, including the design of the green bond framework and the ongoing engagement with external verifiers and investors (Annex 1).
As such, sovereign issuers generally rely on their structuring advisors to provide guidance based on their previous experience in green bond transactions and their deeper understanding of green investor preferences.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON 2019–2020 CONTAMINATED SITES FUNDING PRESSURE

Box Information for the Deputy Minister

DATE: September 25, 2019

SUMMARY

- In response to your request at the Financial Management Committee meeting on August 1, 2019, attached is supplementary, site specific information, related to the Contaminated Sites on Reserve funding pressure.
- Annex A presents a prioritized list of projects; a brief description of the situation along with an assessment of the risks of not proceeding.
- Projects were prioritized based on health and safety, contractual, and duty of care risks as outlined in the table below:

Priority	Description
1	Open excavations, significant health and safety risk combined with ı	the risk of failing to meet contractual obligations - $2.05 million
2	Health and safety risk combined with contravention of federal laws or contractual or duty of care risk - $2.13 million Health and safety risk combined with potential for contamination to 3	spread further and/or damage to the relationship with First Nations
	- $870,000

- These projects are not eligible for funding under the Federal Contaminated Sites Action Plan because they are not Class 1 sites contaminated before 1998, and must be addressed with departmental funds.
- First Nations may have entered into multi-year arrangements with contractors as a result of federal funds provided in previous years. If departmental funds cannot be identified through this exercise, these First Nations would be vulnerable to legal action by contractors. In addition, the relationship between the Department and First Nations will be damaged.
- This funding pressure was first submitted on May 15, 2019. On August 1, 2019, projects were reassessed to determine the amount of work that could be completed this fiscal year. As a result, this funding request has been reduced from $5,600,000 to $5,061,912. The difference in funding would be addressed in a future fiscal year.
- Work on contaminated sites is weather-dependant and several months of the field season have already been lost.
- It is recommended that at the next Financial Management Committee meeting, funding be approved for all Priority 1 projects in Annex A at a minimum, and to Priority 2 and 3 sites if possible.
