

July 30 test

1. What does it mean to background someone?
2. What are at least two questions you should ask yourself about someone before backgrounding?
3. Name four public records that can be used in a background search.
4. What kind of information can you obtain from a property search?
5. Why are a charity's finances a matter of public record?
6. The Prime Minister testifies this morning before the House of Commons Finance committee. Why?
7. Some court documents force individuals to disclose personal information such as how much they earn. Name ONE of these documents?
8. Name two professions that are subject to the rules of their regulatory bodies?
9. Download the NS 2018 political donations we'll be using for the test. Open the table and copy the table into a new appropriately labeled worksheet. Create a pivot table that reveals which political party raised the most money?
10. Create a second pivot table that reveals which party attracted the highest number of donors.
11. Create a third pivot table that SUMS and COUNTS the donations.

12. Create a fourth pivot table that identifies the donor contributed who contributed the most money to the Liberal Party?