Dear Ms. Armstrong:

Enclosed you will find a CD containing records previously released by our department in response to a formal Access to Information request, which was worded as follows:

A-2013-00044: Provide 2011, 2012, 2013 records, including briefing notes, reports, audits, risk assessments on the Canadian pet food industry and its future and foreign competitors. Include financial assistance offered to the Canadian pet food industry; and issues surrounding its suppliers and its wholesale and retail produce.

We are providing these records to you under an "informal" access to information request, which has been given the file number indicated above.

When reviewing the records, you will note that certain information has been blacked out, or exempted. Where information has been exempted, we have indicated in the margins of that page the specific sections of the Act that have been applied. An explanation of those sections can be found in an attachment to this letter. In the case of this file, the following sections of the Access to Information Act have been applied: 13(1)(c) (information obtained in confidence from a province), 14(a) (injury to federal-provincial relations), 15(1) (international affairs), 19(1) (personal information), 20(1)(b) (information supplied by a third party in confidence), 20(1)(c) (financial loss to a third party), 20(1)(d) (injury to a third party's contractual negotiations), 21(1)(a) (advice and recommendations), and 21(1)(b) (consultations and deliberations).

This completes the Department of Agriculture and Agri-Food's response to your request. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Heather Smith at 613-773-1385 or by email at heather.smith2@agr.gc.ca.

Sincerely,

Nancy Pawelek

Do you wish to proceed with this informally, or formally under the Access to Information Act?

If we process this informally, you will get an exact copy of what was provided in the original response, and there will be no charge. Formally, there will be an application fee and possibly other fees, and we will treat this as a new request.

It sounds to me as if you mean informally. Can you confirm, please?
